Kelvin RZ

Hybrid Celery

- Dark green leaves and shiny stems
- Very upright plant habit
- Very few side shoots when harvesting for faster trimming and cleaning
- Easy cutting and trimming of the root base
- Narrower plant helps for faster sleeving and packing
- Very strong against black hearts
- Strong against septoria
- Best suited to harvest from early summer to autumn
- Versatile variety that is hard to beat.

Additional comments and cultural notes

- Seed supplied as primed pellets for efficient plant propagation
